BRIDGE GOES DOWN UNDER BIG ENGINE

Somerset Street Bridge Unable
To Support Speaks' Traction
Engine—His Hard Luck.

The iron bridge on the Somerset pike was totally destroyed Thursday afternoon when the large traction engine of O. G. Speaks, of Highland, crashed through it. A wagon loaded with a saw mill which was being hauled to Morgan Beasley's place to do some cutting, followed the big engine into the St. Asaph making a wreck of fearful confusion.

Mr. Speaks, who was driving the engine as it came down the hill, shut off the steam and jumped over the fence at the left of the pike, into a clump of thorn bushes, when he saw the bridge begin to give way beneath the heavy load. Dave Burton, who was on the engine with him, went down on the right side, Arthur Oaks, another helper, made a wild leap and landed safely but all had very narrow escapes. Others of the crew were in a tender wagon which was held back at the brink by the protruding wreckage of the saw mill. The big engine in going down, turned turtle completely.

The accident happened about four o'clock in the afternoon. The bridge gave way under its ponderous burden with a roar that could be heard all over town. Several had been watching the big engine slide down the steep Somerset pike hill and saw the accident happen. W. C. Haugh, who drove the timber wagon ahead of the engine, had just crossed the bridge, and standing on the north side saw the whole thing go down.

Mr. Speaks' engine is said to be the largest of the kind in this section. It is a 25-horse power engine and is said to weigh about eight or ten tons. The Somerset pike bridge has seen over 15 years' hard service. Some time ago Councilman M. D. Elmore made an effort to have a heavier and wider bridge replace the destroyed one, but it came to naught. The Council will now have to take some action, and will probably act at once for the continued rains have swelled the creek and really made fording somewhat dangerous.

Mr. Speaks, who is a very clever gentleman, has the sympathy of everyone in his hard luck. Things seem to be breaking rather badly for him lately. It has only been a few days since a horse he was driving to town became frightened at a train on Logan avenue, and ran away, smashing the buggy to splinters; and now this traction engine which is said to have cost him $2,000 last year, is very badly damaged.

Harvey Helm

Stirs House With An Able Speech
On Porto Rico.

A special dispatch from Washington this week says:

Representative Harvey Helm made a speech today on Porto Rico that electrified the House. He vigorously denounced American government and occupation of Porto Rico as being unjust and tyrannical and demanded that Porto Rico be given its freedom. His speech created a decided impression. He is a member of the Committee on Insular Affairs and is familiar with conditions in the beautiful island. In part he said:

"Have we so soon arrived at the point where monarchies are more generous and liberal with their subjects than republics are willing to be with their citizens? The constitution that the people of this island had, after years of struggle, secured from the kingdom of Spain, is proof conclusive to my mind of their ability to govern themselves. Here I am willing to rest the case; I ask for no further evidence; I am ready to act. It would be well nigh as consistent to contend that the signers of the Declaration of Independence or the framers of our constitution were not capable of self-government as to maintain that the people who could extract from a king the constitution with which the people of this island were clothed, are not capable of self-government."

"If further evidence of their capacity for self-government should be demanded, we need only to examine the laws enacted by the legislative bodies, created under the constitution to which I have referred, as well as to those acts passed since the American occupation. Here we have concrete results that are monuments in themselves, and that will stand favorable comparison with the acts of many of the legislatures of the states comprising the Union."

If after breathing Hyomei, the great antiseptic, you are not rid of that vile catarrh, G. L. Penny will return your money. Complete outfit $1. Extra bottles 50c.

Kicked by a Horse.

Casey County Youngster Badly
Hurt—Other Live News.

MIDDLEBURG, June 10.

Little Charles Sweeney, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Sweeney, was kicked by a horse while playing in the yard one afternoon this week. An ugly gash was cut in the little fellow's cheek, but he will soon be all right, as he is not dangerously hurt.

Farmers hereabouts are taking advantage of the present rainy season and thousands upon thousands of tobacco plants are being set.

Rev. John Valentine, of Georgetown College, will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.

Things seem to have quieted down on Calvary Ridge and Hatter creek and as a consequence the magistrate's court docket promises to be a slim one.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Mrs. Betsy Sims, charged with "sickening" a vicious dog on Dick Luttrill's children, was dismissed in the magistrate's court at Yosemite, Friday, as there seems to have been but little in the charge.

The Sunday-schools here were quite slimly attended Sunday and the morning services at Green River were completely rained out. Bro. Montgomery preached in the afternoon to a small audience and then returned to his home at Liberty.

Miss Lula Earls, of Mt. Salem, visited Miss Pearl Godsey here Sunday. Glancy McWhorter, of Somerset, was here last week to see the home folks.

Dr. W. T. Francis, of Monticello, is at the Yosemite Hotel for the practice of dentistry. Clarence Sims, of Mt. Salem, was down Sunday to see his best girl. Mrs. J. B. Jones, of Bellevue, and her sister, Miss Minnie Shannon, of Junction City, will arrive in a few days to visit Mrs. J. A. Estes and the Fogles, on the Liberty pike.

Medical Society

To Hold Monthly Meeting Here
Tuesday Morning.

The Lincoln County Medical Society will hold its regular meeting in Stanford next Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The call for the meeting has been issued by the secretary, Dr. W. F. Hickie, of Hubble. The session will be held at the St. Asaph Hotel and an unusually interesting program has been prepared. Dr. M. M. Phillips will read a paper on "Pneumonia" and Dr. W. J. Childress, of Hustonville, will speak on "Summer Complaints of Children." A full attendance of the members of the society is requested.

Bank Robbers

In Civil War Days, Said to Have Buried Money.

Edward Flaig, the Danville jeweler, has solved the mystery surrounding the discovery of a box containing several gold coins in Dix river near King's Mill last week.

Mr. Flaig states that for years it has been known that several boxes of gold and silver coin were buried in the vicinity of the old mill dam, says the Advocate. Many attempts have been made to find the treasure and in years gone by hundreds of fortune seekers have dug into the earth. Mr. Flaig says that prior to the Civil War this section of the state was infested with notorious bank robbers and that the bank at Nicholasville was robbed. Citizens pursued the robbers into Dix river cliffs. There trace was lost of them. Some years later one of the robbers on his death bed at Lexington, said that he was a member of the gang and that one box of the money was hid in the King's mill dam and that other boxes were buried on the bank of the river.

Many efforts have been made to locate the money since the confessed robber made the dying statement, and that found by George Kelly is said to have been the first part of the rich treasure so far unearthed.

ITCH RELIEVED AT ONCE.

That terrible itch disappears with the First Drops of a simple compound of oil of wintergreen, thymol and glycerine mixed in D. D. D. Prescription. This soothing, healing lotion, used externally, kills the eczema germ instantly.

Heretofore the D. D. D. remedy has been sold only in 1¢ bottles; but as a special offer, any sufferer in this town who has never tried D. D. D. can now try this remedy in a special bottle at 25c. It cures the itch instantly. We know this. Sold by Shugars & Tanner.

CHRISTY SHOW STRANDED HERE.

Players Take Paraphernalia For Pay And Give a Benefit Performance Here.

The G. W. Christy Show, which came here last Saturday from Mt. Vernon, stranded after playing here two nights, and Christy turned over the show for the benefit of the performers. A benefit performance was given Wednesday night at which sufficient funds were raised to enable most of the show people to get out of town. Most of them went to Lancaster to give a performance in effort to raise more funds, but some struck out for Cincinnati.

The show possessed some exceptionally good talent and seemed handicapped by lack of capital, and bad management. It started from Atlanta several months ago and did well for a while but lately the players say they had not been receiving their salaries and the owner gave them his I. O. U.s for the remainder. They found difficulty in negotiating these for board so he turned over the show to them.

The members of the troupe were C. G. Frye, agent, Frank Gamble, a cow boy, Madame Stickney and her performing dogs, the Armstrong family, the stars of the show, and Biggs and Remy, a comedy sketch team.

New Barbershop

To Be Opened at Crab Orchard
By G. C. Lutes.

G. C. Lutes, who has been living in Nebraska for the past six years, has returned to Lincoln, declaring that old Kentucky is good enough for him. He has decided to locate at Crab Orchard and open up a first class barber shop and bath rooms in that thriving little burg.

Mr. Lutes was in Stanford Thursday and bought a number of fixtures from W. K. Warner for the up-to-date establishment he will open. He said he didn't think his patrons would be wholly satisfied unless they had the Interior Journal to read, so ordered it sent to his shop.

Mr. Lutes is a cousin of the Lutes' in this part of the county and is a hustling young fellow.

Delicate Operation

On Crab Orchard Patient Proves Decided Success.

Dr. L. F. Jones and C. H. Robbins, of Crab Orchard, were here Thursday with Dr. J. G. Carpenter. The two medical men performed a delicate operation for tuberculosis of a bone upon Mr. Robbins a few weeks ago, and he is making a nice recovery, the operation having been a success in every way. Mr. Robbins was one of the very few men in the East End who did not subscribe for the INTERIOR JOURNAL. He said that he couldn't do without it any longer, however, so ordered it to make its twice-a-week visits to his home.

Dr. Jones is regarded as one of the foremost young physicians in this part of the state. "He is a coming man," said Dr. Carpenter, speaking of him to the I. J.

Moffett-McMullen.

Beautiful Ceremony Solemnized
At Lebanon This Week.

Rev. J. R. McMullen, of Nashville, formerly a professor in the city schools here, and Miss Emma H., daughter of Rev. A. S. Moffett, D. D., formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church here, were married at Lebanon Wednesday evening. Dr. Moffett performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. J. C. McMullen, father of the groom. The ceremony was a beautiful one, and was peculiarly of the clergy, for all of the attendants of the groom were clergymen, and the bridesmaids were nearly all daughters of ministers of the gospel. The groom's best man was Rev. G. C. Seanland, of the Presbyterian Seminary, Louisville, his other groomsmen being Rev. Cary Blain, of Hustonville, Rev. Crenshaw, of Arkansas, Rev. J. Rockwell Smith, of Lebanon, and Rev. A. A. Higgins, of Glasgow. The bride's attendants were Misses Kittie and Nettie McMullen, sisters of the groom, her own sisters, Miss May Craig and Martha Paxton Moffett, and Miss Turner, of North Carolina, who is a daughter of a deacon in the Presbyterian church.

After the ceremony the bridal party left for their home in Nashville. In September they will go to China as missionaries.

Shelby City Young Man

Dies In Lebanon Hospital—Live
News From The Junction.

JUNCTION CITY, June 10.

John Figg, of Shelby City, aged 32, died Sunday night at Lebanon in the McChord Hospital of a tumor. He was one of our most industrious and honorable citizens. His funeral was preached by Rev. Wyatt Montgomery, of Moreland. Mr. Figg was a member of the Christian church. He was buried on Tuesday in the Junction City cemetery by the Macabees, with whom he had $1,000 insurance. He leaves a wife, two boys and a little girl.

Mr. Martini Bartell, one of our best citizens, has been very ill for the past two weeks.

Robert Lingie, who has been in the McChord Hospital for the past month, returned home Monday. He was hit by a base ball, which caused his trouble.

Mrs. Geflinger and daughter, Miss Hazel, of Harrodsburg, are guests of her daughter, Mrs. Louis Kreimer.

Mr. Ely, our new blacksmith, has almost completed a neat cottage on the old Vandiver place east of Mr. Cox's residence.

G. D. McCullum has just refurnished his hotel with new iron bedsteads, mattresses, etc. He has also received a hoghead of new dishes. He will paint the building, which has suffered from fires on three different sides, from the Dick Hotel south to the Curry Grocery Co., north and the Tribble House on the east.

Judd Phillips, of Liberty, formerly of this place, was here a few days ago seeing old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Needham have returned with their daughter, Miss Sabina, from a visit to Booneville.

Mrs. Edward Taylor, of Lexington, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dr. Chase, the past week.

Grady Lewis had eight or ten men and boys setting out his seven acres of tobacco in the old stove factory lot this week.

Contractor W. A. Reynolds has the first story of the new Tribble House raised. Mr. High is the foreman.

Sam Moore, our Pierpont Morgan, has purchased the Hiram Johnson farm near Bowen for $75 per acre. There are about 130 acres.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Connett, of Cincinnati, and E. C. Looney, of Danville, attended the funeral of Mr. John Figg, Tuesday.

Mrs. G. D. McCullum, Miss Ruth McCullum and Mrs. Wm. Trosper attended the C. W. B. M. meeting at Danville, at which Mrs. McCullum acted as hostess.

There are over 25 men and boys from our two towns who go to Danville to work on the railroad as carpenters every day or night. It seems that there is work for an automobile line from here to Danville.

Prof. E. L. Grubbs attended the alumni banquet of Centre College Thursday. He graduated there 21 years ago, but met not a one of his old class and about 75 of the several hundred alumni were present. The aim of Dr. Hitt, the president, is to raise $168,000 by July 1, 1911, to build more buildings and add to the endowment.

Drug Clerk's Fearful Error.

H. H. Morton, a well known Louisville drummer, died almost instantly in Atlantic, Iowa, when a drug clerk gave him formaldehyde instead of a drink of Hunyadi water for which he called. The mistake was caused by a wrong label being placed on the bottle containing the poison.

Sunday Services.

Rev. Morgan will preach at the Neal Creek church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

THREE DEATHS AT CRAB ORCHARD

Two Well Known Farmers and Prominent Woman Pass Away
—Other Late News.

Crab Orchard, June 10.

Shelton Blankenship, formerly a magistrate of Lincoln county and one of the best known farmers in this section, died at his home near here Wednesday as a result of a paralytic stroke which he suffered Sunday. Mr. Blankenship was 74 years of age, and the weight of years was too heavy for him to throw off this attack upon a tired nature.

Mr. Blankenship is survived by his wife and several children. He was a faithful and earnest member of the Baptist church, a member of the republican party and a respected and honored citizen.

F. Marion Martin, another respected citizen of the same community, passed away early in the week of pneumonia. He was 63 years old and is survived by his wife and ten children. Mr. Martin was a consistent member of the Baptist church and a well known and progressive farmer. He was buried here Tuesday.

It also becomes our sad duty to chronicle the death of Mrs. Collier, wife of Judge P. D. Collier, which occurred at her home at 10 a. m. June 7. She had been in our midst only a few months, having been married to Judge Collier last December. Our acquaintance with her was limited, yet we found her a refined and most excellent christian woman, calculated to wield an influence for good among all with whom she came in contact. Her remains were taken to Millersburg Wednesday for burial, accompanied by her husband and friends.

The family of Mr. Jack Davis received a telegram conveying the sad news of the death of the wife of George Davis, son of Jack Davis. Mr. Davis' friends will remember that he moved with his family to Illinois a few years ago. The remains were taken to Lancaster for interment.

Hon. P. M. McRoberts and Judge M. C. Sauley were visitors in our town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cummins and Mrs. J. S. Rice drove up from Stanford in Mr. Cummins' auto and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Holdam.

The many friends of Miss Ila Holdam may be glad to know she has graduated as a trained nurse from the training school at Chicago. She had the compliment conferred upon her by being selected to deliver a response to the doctors' addresses to the graduates. She was also tendered the position of assistant superintendent in the Michael Reese Hospital, which she accepted. We send congratulations and wish for her success in every way.

Miss Anna Boyle, of Louisville, is visiting her grand-parents, Col. and Mrs. Guest.

Mrs. Mamie Perkins and little daughter, and Miss Sallie McWhorter, have returned from Berea, where they visited relatives and attended the commencement exercises of Berea College. Rev. Smith, of Louisville, an evangelist, is here for a short time to recuperate.

Mr. Wheelodon, of Brodhead, has been visiting his brother, Evan Wheelodon.

Mrs. George B. Lyne has returned from a delightful visit to her mother at Hawesville.

Miss Elizabeth Payne continues quite ill.

Folding Machine

Installed in I. J. Office a Great
Labor Saver.

Determined not to be behind the procession at any stage of the game, the INTERIOR JOURNAL has bought a brand new Eclipse folding machine, and after having been folded for 40 years by hand, the papers will now be folded by machine. The machine folds an average of about a paper a second, very much faster than two or three men can do it. The friends of the paper are invited to come up any press day and see it in operation.

Saved From Awful Death

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C., R. F. D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all remedies failed, till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her that she has not been troubled with a cough since. Its the best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, influenza, croup, hemorrhage, all bronchial troubles, it has no equal. 50c and $1; trial bottles free. Guaranteed by G. L. Penny.
